Call to Enact a Canadian Environmental Bill of Rights

WHEREAS Canadians share a deep concern for our environment and recognize its inherent value;

WHEREAS it is important to safeguard the rights of present and future generations to a healthy and ecologically balanced environment;

WHEREAS it is the federal government's public trust duty to protect the environment under its jurisdiction;

WHEREAS Canadians should have the right and access to legal tools to hold the government accountable to protect their environment, including access to information and standing before courts and tribunals;

WHEREAS the ability of the government to protect the environment is enhanced when the public is engaged;

WHEREAS employees deserve protection where they take actions towards protection of the environment;

THEREFORE, we the undersigned call on the House of Commons to enact Bill C-202 a Canadian Environmental Bill of Rights.
